HISTORY

This residence is a brick three-bedroom two bath home in an older subdivision in Shreveport, La. It is occupied by three sisters who rent the home and have been living there less than one year. They report no experiences prior to moving into the home.

REPORTED EXPERIENCES

The residents report numerous experiences. The most significant of which is inappropriate physical touching when in bed to the point of personal violation. They report this is almost, if not, a nightly occurrence. Pressure can be felt pushing down on the bed when this occurs. They also report seeing a dark shadow in the bathroom when taking a shower. A small dog that shares the home is terrified to the point of sleeping under a pillow. Physical touching has also been experienced in the kitchen and living room.

INVESTIGATION

Date of Investigation: September 19, 2020

Participants: Susan Lyles, Bess Maxwell, Kirk Cormier

Investigation Narrative:

The investigation began around 8:00 pm and the house was unoccupied except for the investigators. The team split up into and investigated different rooms in the house. Bess and Susan alternately occupied the beds for approximately 30-minute periods attempting to experience any physical contact and doing EVP and Spirit Box sessions. A full spectrum GoPro camera and IR illuminator was set up in the two most active bedrooms and recorded the entire time of the investigation. Kirk was stationed in the living room also doing EVP sessions and watching for any movement in the kitchen or hall. Before ending the investigation, the house was treated with smoke from Palo Santo wood in hopes to remove any negative energy. The investigation was ended around 11:00 pm.

Personal Experiences

There were several personal experiences that were not captured on the video or audio equipment.

Susan Lyles:

While investigating the back or master bedroom, she believes she saw a dark figure near the bathroom door. A light on a piece of electronic equipment appeared to be blocked out by the figure at one point.

She also felt uncomfortable in this room. More so than in any other room of the house.

While laying in the bed in the front bedroom she felt what she thinks was a caressing of her left shoulder and hair. This occurred for approximately 5 minutes.

Near the end of the investigation she was using the hall bathroom and had turned away from the toilet paper holder on the wall to use a loose roll and heard the toilet paper roll on the wall spin.

Bess Maxwell:

While investigating in middle bedroom, heard a rustling sound in the corner. Not identified or debunked.

Kirk Cormier:

While setting up the cameras, before the investigation began, a sound was heard in the doorway of the middle bedroom that sounded like a weak groan. It sounded remarkably close to his ear.

It is possible it could have been the air vent in the bathroom stopping rotation or something else. It was not heard again and remains unidentified or debunked.

Model P-SB7 Spirit Box with Portal:

1. Asked “Where do I need to go?” Response: “Don’t lie to me”
2. “This is Harvey” This was received at the exact time Kirk had texted his sister in Houston and had referenced Hurricane Harvey
3. Asked “You know Sherry, right?” Answer: “Right”
4. Asked “Is there anybody in here that would like to talk?” Answer “Nobody”
5. “Harvey”
6. Asked “How many spirits are here?” Answer “Five”

EVP’s: None Captured

Video Evidence: None Captured

Conclusions

Considering the amount of reported activity, the personal experiences of the investigators, and spirit box captures; the possibility of paranormal activity in this residence appears to be significant. The residents were advised that a second investigation might be in order. Also, they were advised that a psychic medium may be needed to rid the residence of any problematic entities.
